Capital City Cocker Club Website Update for July, August, and September 2003

Our 2300th new visitor arrived on October 4th and there were 22, 973 pages viewed during the past 3 months. Our non-U.S. visitors during this period (in order of frequency of visits) were from Germany, Switzerland, the Russian Federation, Lithuania, Uruguay, Canada, Japan, the United Kingdom, the Netherlands, Mexico, Finland, Hong Kong, Australia, Singapore, Denmark, Saudi Arabia, Austria, Malta, Belgium, the Czech Republic, Greece, and Singapore.

The most visited pages in July and August were the memorials to Cindy. The agility pages were very popular all three months with over 200 visitors each month and the premium list was viewed 382 times. The rescue section has become more popular each month, moving into second place behind the agility section in September.

We received many visits due to links to our site that are on other sites. Visitors linked to us from cleanrun, dogpage, barkbytes, the ASC, Westhaven, the AKC, and the Hiawatha CSC among others. The top search engine links came from Google, MSN, and AOL.

The busiest day of the month was mid month, the busiest day of the week remains Friday, and the busiest hour is mid day.

We're adding a new section containing directions to area shows. Please visit the page and let us know what we need to add. Click on "Links and related subjects" on the left bar, and then "Directions to Shows." We're also working with Mike and Bitsy to expand the memorial to their Mom and move it to a permanent home on the web.

CCCC Premiere Event!1st AKC All-Breed Agility Trials

(600 runs per day)

Nov. 15-16, 2003

Cedar Run Horse Center (indoors, unheated)

Dale City, Va.

Entries for our trials opened on Sept. 12 and the trials were “filled” in the first few days. So, we expect the maximum entry of 600 runs per day to hold. Although exhibitors themselves do much in the way of helping out on show days, we still need member support. Our trial committee consists of Nancy Bean, Edie Allyn, Felicia Mazur, Joanne Dzenkowski and Melissa Frye. The committee has been making plans for prizes/awards, ribbons/rosettes, volunteer (worker) schedules, caterer, grounds, etc. Edie Allyn and Katie Knepley have been working on all of the secretarial matters - i.e., logging in entries, checks, answering e-mails, etc. - a HUGE undertaking!

Following is a list of volunteers gathered from the August meeting:

Lloyd Alton, Bill Gorodner
Luann Chandler
Beth & Jim Slagle
Noemi Taylor
Linda Wright

If your name is not shown above and you can come and lend a hand, we will most graciously welcome you! Please contact Felicia Mazur at feliciamazur@yahoo.com or call (540) 972-9988 if you can assist on either or both days. You can be trained for most jobs - even if you don't have agility trial experience!

This is a club event, not just an agility event! The income received from these trials will benefit the whole club. Come on out and enjoy a fun weekend! You will really enjoy seeing all of the dogs run.

You may contact me with any questions...Nancy at Partispanl@aol.com or (703) 670-0816. The directions to the horse center are following.
